An IRA Charitable Rollover Gift:

May satisfy your annual required minimum distribution, or RMD, up to the amount of your gift

Allows you to give from pre-tax assets and your distribution is excluded from taxable income

Helps avoid limits on charitable deductions and prevents you from being pushed into a higher tax bracket

Simplifies the giving process. It's easy to do— just notify your IRA custodian

Minimizes the effect your giving has on your cash flow. The gift is from your assets, not your checkbook

- 70½ or older
- Direct up to $100,000

Reduce Your Tax Burden

even if you don't itemize

Do you own an IRA or other qualified retirement plan? Are you looking for a tax-wise strategy to make gifts to support our mission? If so, consider making an IRA charitable rollover gift.

At your direction, the custodian or trustee of your IRA can transfer money from your IRA directly to a qualified public charity, like ours, so that you can support the causes that matter most to you. This gift is a qualified charitable distribution (QCD), also called an IRA charitable rollover gift.

An IRA rollover has several significant tax advantages. It allows you to give from pre-tax assets. If you do not itemize or are subject to charitable deduction limits, the IRA rollover still allows you to give while receiving tax benefits. An IRA rollover gift could also help you avoid income that could push you into a higher tax bracket.
